

ALASKA'S ARCTIC AURORA

8 Days | Roundtrip Fairbanks

Watch the Northern Lights dance across Alaska's sky while visiting your own private igloo-style accommodations and crossing the Arctic Circle. Experience the best Alaska winter has to offer right in our own backyard.

ACCOMMODATIONS

Sophie Station Suites	3 Nights	Fairbanks
Borealis Basecamp	2 Nights	Fairbanks
Coldfoot Camp	2 Nights	Coldfoot

TOUR FEATURES

- Cross the Arctic Circle
- Drive/Fly through Alaska's winter
- Private igloo experience while sleeping under the Northern Lights
- Trail Breaker Kennel – presentation and dog sledding ride
- A "Pick Your Adventure Day" – dog mushing, snow-machining, snowshoeing

2025 DEPARTURES

ALASKA'S ARCTIC AURORA

330: FEB 17 - FEB 24

331: MAR 13 - MAR 20

DOUBLE $9,429

Please call for triple/quad pricing.

SINGLE $10,599

PER PERSON PRICING INCLUDES: Accommodations; fully-guided service; luxury land and small plane transportation; airport transfers; daily activities and tours; meals, baggage handling, and corresponding gratuities; taxes; and black sub-zero jacket.

WINTER GEAR: Cold weather gear, such as boots and pants, are available for rent or purchase through recommended John Hall's Alaska sources.

1 Fairbanks

Welcome to Fairbanks - the golden heart of Alaska! Upon arrival, guests will be greeted at the airport by a John Hall's Alaska representative and transferred to Sophie Station Suites. The remainder of the day is open for exploring. Enjoy an optional aurora viewing opportunity tonight away from the city lights and experience the breathtaking view of the evening sky.

Dinner

Overnight: Sophie Station Suites

2 Dog Sledding & Aurora Viewing

Following a Welcome Breakfast with the group, visit Trail Breaker Kennel - home of the late four-time Iditarod champion Susan Butcher. Immerse yourself in the outdoors of Alaska starting with a visit to the Monson Family homestead and dog sled rides. Relax this afternoon before enjoying dinner. For those feeling adventurous, join your tour manager for a search of the elusive Aurora Borealis in the hills and mountains surrounding Fairbanks.

Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Overnight: Sophie Station Suites

3 Curling & Aurora Borealis

After a late night of aurora viewing, enjoy a relaxing morning before heading to the Morris Thompson Cultural Center to learn about the history of Fairbanks. After lunch it's on to take part in one of Alaskan's favorite sports - curling! Spend some time learning about the formation of the Olympic sport and try your skills firsthand. Travel 25 miles on the Elliott Highway north from Fairbanks before reaching the home of the igloo-style overnight accommodations of Borealis Basecamp, spending two evenings under the Northern Lights in private pods.

Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Overnight: Borealis Basecamp

4 Borealis Basecamp Adventure

After a late night of aurora viewing from guests' private igloos, sleep in and enjoy breakfast at leisure. Today includes Alaska style adventure with dog sledding and snow-machining! An optional helicopter tour, snow coach at sunset and time in the sauna are also available to enhance the experience. This evening, guests enjoy an aurora photography lesson. Practice your camera skills while watching the aurora dance in the sky from the comfort of a climate-controlled modern geodesic igloo custom built for Borealis Basecamp.

Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Overnight: Borealis Basecamp

5 Coldfoot and Arctic Circle

Continue north through Alaska's Dalton Highway and Haul Road as you make your way to the trucking camp of Coldfoot. Located halfway between Prudhoe Bay and Fairbanks, Coldfoot is best known for its location. A close rival is the incredible aurora viewing available for those willing to make the trip. Spend two evenings at the base of the Brooks Range, north of the Arctic Circle line and source of the Northern Lights occurrence.

Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Overnight: Coldfoot Camp

6 Winter Activities

Wake up in remote Alaska to the quiet environment of Coldfoot, Alaska. This remote location is primarily used for truckers and visitors alike, sharing breakfast, lunch or even dinner tables. Today, venture out on an Arctic Mountain Safari and travel further north into the Brooks Mountain Range for some spectacular activity. Explore the winter serenity and peace which fills Alaska's wilderness during the day, taking in the dancing northern lights in the evening.

Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Overnight: Coldfoot Camp

7 Fly to Fairbanks

Enjoy a relaxing morning and breakfast taking in the breathtaking aurora borealis memories. This afternoon, guests board a privately chartered small aircraft to return to Fairbanks where the John Hall's Alaska coach will be waiting. This evening concludes with a dinner amongst your traveling companions sharing the memories created over the past 7 days.

Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Overnight: Sophie Station Suites

8 Fairbanks

Following breakfast, transfer to the Fairbanks International Airport for a homebound flight and bid farewell to the incredible journey and experience of Alaska's northern lights and Arctic Circle.

Breakfast

Included Highlights

- Trail Breaker Kennel Sled Dog Ride
- Private Learn to Curl Lesson
- Aurora Borealis Photography Lesson
- Evening Aurora searching
- Sleep under Alaska skies and Northern Lights
- A "Pick Your Adventure Day": Borealis Basecamp
- Cross the Arctic Circle twice
- Travel the infamous Haul Road
- Privately chartered aircraft from Coldfoot to Fairbanks

Included Meals: 20

Breakfast, lunch & dinner on all full tour days, plus arrival day dinner and departure day breakfast.

Max Group Size: 20

Active Rating

Most ability levels. Requires ability to board small planes and walk in snow.

Flights

This tour begins in Fairbanks, Alaska, and ends in Fairbanks, Alaska. Flights must arrive before 6pm on Day 1; early check-in cannot be guaranteed before 4pm. On Day 8, flights may depart Fairbanks anytime.

