1 Fairbanks

Welcome to Fairbanks - the golden heart of Alaska! Upon arrival, guests will be greeted at the airport by a John Hall's Alaska representative and transferred to Sophie Station Suites. The remainder of the day is open for exploring. Enjoy an optional aurora viewing opportunity tonight away from the city lights and experience the breathtaking view of the evening sky.

Dinner

Overnight: Sophie Station Suites

2 Dog Sledding & Curling

Following a Welcome Breakfast with the group, visit Trail Breaker Kennel - home of the late four-time Iditarod champion Susan Butcher. This experience includes dog sled rides with a behind-the-scenes look at the kennel and the Monson family homestead. After lunch and time with the pups, experience one of Alaskan's favorite sports - curling! At the Fairbanks Curling Club, join in the fun with a private lesson. Travel to Borealis Basecamp, a unique stay in private igloo style domes while sleeping under the Northern Lights for two nights. This evening, half the group joins a professional aurora photographer for an exclusive photography presentation with tips on how to properly set up cameras to capture the northern lights.

Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Overnight: Borealis Basecamp

3 Borealis Basecamp Adventure Day

After a late night of aurora viewing from guests' private igloos, sleep in and enjoy breakfast at leisure. Today includes Alaska style adventure with dog sledding and snow-machining! An optional helicopter tour, snow coach at sunset and time in the sauna are also available to enhance the experience. This evening, the remainder of guests enjoy the photography lesson. Practice your new camera skills while watching the aurora dance in the sky from the comfort of a climate-controlled modern geodesic igloo custom built for Borealis Basecamp.

4 Talkeetna

After breakfast, travel by coach to Talkeetna via the Parks Highway. Keep an eye out for moose on the hillsides along the way! Make a lunch stop enroute before arriving in Talkeetna for a relaxing evening. The Talkeetna Alaskan Lodge - guests home for two evenings - keeps the fire roaring into the early morning hours for those who opt to view the Northern Lights and Mount Denali from the lodge's expansive back porch.

5 Denali Flightseeing

The day begins with a group brunch before a 1.5-hour flightseeing tour that not only highlights Denali National Park and Mount Denali, but includes a fly-by of Hunter, Foraker, Silverthorne, and Moose's Tooth Peaks before landing (weather pending) in the Great Gorge. This afternoon stroll around downtown Talkeetna, before a tasty dinner at a local favorite Alaska establishment. Relax this evening or choose to spend the evening hours outdoors watching aurora borealis.
