1 Fairbanks

Welcome to Fairbanks - the golden heart of Alaska! Upon arrival, guests will be greeted at the airport by a John Hall's Alaska representative and transferred to Sophie Station Suites. The remainder of the day is open for exploring. For those feeling adventurous, join your tour manager for a search of the elusive Aurora Borealis in the hills and mountains surrounding Fairbanks.

Dinner

Overnight: Sophie Station Suites

2 Dog Sledding & Aurora Viewing

Following a Welcome Breakfast with the group, visit Trail Breaker Kennel - home of the late four-time Iditarod champion Susan Butcher. Immerse yourself in the outdoors of Alaska starting with a visit to the Monson Family homestead and dog sled rides. Relax this afternoon before enjoying dinner. Enjoy an optional aurora viewing opportunity tonight away from the city lights and experience the breathtaking view of the evening sky.

3 Curling & Aurora Borealis

After a late night of aurora viewing, enjoy a relaxing morning before heading to the Morris Thompson Cultural Center to learn about the history of Fairbanks. After lunch it's on to take part in one of Alaskan's favorite sports - curling! Spend some time learning about the formation of the Olympic sport and try your skills firsthand. Travel 25 miles away from the city lights to the remote Arctic Igloo Resort. Spend two evenings viewing the Northern Lights from a private glass-enclosed igloo-style pod.

5 Coldfoot & Arctic Circle

Travel north along Alaska's Dalton Highway and Haul Road as you make your way to the trucking camp of Coldfoot. Located halfway between Prudhoe Bay and Fairbanks, Coldfoot is best known for its location. A close rival is the incredible aurora viewing available for those willing to make the trip. Tonight offers the unique opportunity to travel further into the Brooks Range with a late-night Arctic Aurora experience in remote Wiseman. After an unforgettable evening, return to Coldfoot Camp for two nights spent at the base of the Brooks Range, north of the Arctic Circle line and in prime aurora viewing territory.
